ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First of all, grateful to Allah SWT and His Messenger Muhammad SAW, for giving me this opportunity to further study and doing this master thesis entitled Proposing Islamic Elements as a Parameter of Credit Evaluation Process in Commercial Financing Approval: A Study of Dual-banking in Malaysia.

Foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Mohamad Yazis Bin Ali Basah and my co-supervisor Dr. Muhammad Ridhwan Bin Ab. Azis for the continuous support of my master research, for their patience, motivation, enthusiasm and immense knowledge. Their guidance, comments and remarks helped me in all the time of research and writing of this thesis. I could not have imagined having a better supervisor and mentor for my master study.

Furthermore, I would like to thank Prof. Madya Dr. Kalsom Abd Wahab for teaching me to the research methodology and data analysis as well for the support on the way. Last but not least, I would like to thank my family, especially to my parents Mohamad Bin Hussin, Suriani Binti Sahabuddin, Mohd Taufiq Bin Abdullah and Nazrah Binti Abdul for giving birth to me in the first place and also my lovely husband, Mohamed Hakim Bin Ahmad Shah for supporting me spiritually throughout my life and for his understanding and endless love, through the duration of my research study. Last but not least, all my friends. Each of you can share in this accomplishment, for without your support it could not have been possible. May Allah the Almighty bless you and I will be grateful forever for your love.
